

COMMUNITY SPEAKERS BUREAU

Is your community organization, school, church, business or parent group in need of a speaker? Commonwealth Parenting provides speakers addressing a wide variety of parenting and family topics. We can address any parenting or child development issue you wish. Some suggested topics are listed below. Contact us to request a speaker or design an existing topic to meet the specific interests of your group.

The Biggest Job: Finding the balance between character and achievement for your child

Boys vs. Girls: Gender differences in relation to parenting and/or school success

Bullies and Bullying

Choosing a Preschool or Childcare

Communicating Effectively with Your Children

How Parents Can Get an "A" in School

1, 2, 3 Magic: Easy to learn, effective discipline techniques

Kids and the Internet

Is This Normal?

Jumpstart to School Success: Helping Kids Develop Good Organizational Skills

Learning Styles: A Look at the Way Children Learn

Let's Talk About Tweeners (Parenting the 9-12 year old)

The Hurried Child

Making Time to be a Family

Milestones for Preschoolers

Parenting Teens

Peer Pressure

Raising Responsible Children

Ready, Set, Preschool

Sibling Rivalry

Single Parenting: You're Not in it Alone!

Understanding Your Child's Temperament

Presentations are usually one hour in length, but can be adjusted. Call 545-1272, and speak with Linda Brauer, Programs Director, to reserve your speaker.