

COMMUNITY SPEAKERS BUREAU

Is your community group, school, church, or business in need of a speaker? Commonwealth Parenting provides speakers addressing a wide variety of parenting and family topics. We can address any parenting or child development issue you wish. Some suggested topics are listed below. Contact us to request a speaker or design an existing topic to meet the specific interests of your group.

- The Biggest Job: Finding the balance between character and achievement for your child
- Boys vs. Girls: Gender differences in relation to parenting and/or school success
- Bullies and Bullying
- Choosing a Preschool or Childcare
- Communicating Effectively with Your Children
- How Parents Can Get an “A” in School
- 1, 2, 3 Magic: Easy to Learn, Effective Discipline Techniques
- Kids and the Internet
- Is This Normal?
- Jumpstart to School Success: Helping Kids Develop Good Organizational Skills
- Tweeners (Parenting the 9 – 12 year old)
- The Hurried Child
- Making Time to be a Family
- Milestones for Preschoolers
- Parenting Teens
- Peer Pressure
- Raising Responsible Children
- Ready, Set, Preschool
- Sibling Rivalry
- Single Parenting: You’re Not in it Alone!
- Understanding Your Child’s Temperament

Presentations are usually one hour in length, but can be adjusted. To reserve your speaker, call 545-1272, and ask for Linda Brauer, Programs Director.